

Josip Švagelj, a Croatian tenor, has gained recognition for winning the 1st Prize and the Grand Prix at the Stojan Stojanov Ganchev International Vocal Competition, as well as special awards from the Croatian Chamber Orchestra, HDGPP, and Lav Mirski. In the upcoming season, he will perform at Tiroler Festspiele Erl as Gastone in La Traviata, Matteo Borsa in Rigoletto, and Ruiz in Il Trovatore. Additionally, he is scheduled to appear as Ferrando in Così fan tutte, Gastone in La Traviata, Schmit in Werther, and Normano in Lucia di Lammermoor at the Zagreb National Opera.

Josip made a successful debut at the Zagreb National Opera House in B. Papandopulo's Amfitrion, portraying the character Mercury. He also impressed audiences at the Opera Studio of the Zagreb Music Academy in Rimsky-Korsakov's Mozart and Salieri opera, where he portrayed Mozart.

Outside of opera roles, Josip regularly performs in concerts and various events across Croatia and Montenegro. His diverse repertoire includes roles such as Rodolfo in La Bohème, Alfredo and Gastone in La Traviata, The Indian Guest in Sadko, Nick in La Fanciulla Del West, Young Gipsy in Aleko, Lensky in Eugene Onegin, Peppe in Pagliacci, and Ferrando in Così fan tutte, among others.

In 2023, Josip notably debuted as Saint Giovanni in G. F. Handel's Resurrection Oratorio at the Blagoje Bersa Concert Hall. His collaborations with the Montenegrin Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Maestro Robert Homan have earned significant acclaim from both audiences and critics. Born in 1993 in Zagreb, Josip Švagelj continues to enchant audiences with his exceptional vocal talent and artistic versatility.

CONTACT

Ivana Tanovitski
ivana@tact4art.com
+385 91 781 78 33

Alex Grigorev
alex@tact4art.com
+31 647 900 647

...

