

Nikoloz Lagvilava's upcoming engagements include Amonasro Aida at Opéra de Rouen and the Prague National Theatre, title role Nabucco at the Prague National Theatre and Nabucco in concert version at Opéra de Toulon, title role Rigoletto at the Polish National Opera.

Recent engagements include Iago Otello at the Seoul Arts Center, returns as Rigoletto at Theater Basel, the Prague National Theater and the Wrocław Opera*. With the same role he made his debut at Teatro Nacional de Chile and Ópera de Toulon. Another debut includes Scarpia Tosca at the New National Theatre Tokyo, along with returns as Amonasro Aida to the Polish National Opera and the Prague National Theatre, Germont La traviata at the Georgian National Opera and Scarpia Tosca at the Wrocław Opera*.

His other engagements include house debuts as Germont La Traviata at the Dubai Opera, the title role in Rigoletto at Theater Basel, Amonasro Aida at the Polish National Opera in Warsaw, Scarpia at the Istanbul Opera Festival, Rigoletto in Moscow, Scarpia Tosca Deutsche Oper am Rhein Düsseldorf, Iago Otello, Nabucco at Opéra de Dijon and Opéra de Lille, Escamillo Carmen at the Bolshoi Theatre Moscow and the Slovak National Theatre, Count Tomsy Pique Dame at the Savonlinna Opera Festival and Alfio Cavalleria Rusticana at the Norwegian National Opera. [*cancelled]

Lagvilava's further past appearances include his debuts at the Glyndebourne Festival and at the Komische Oper Berlin in the title role of Rigoletto. He garnered critical acclaim as Scarpia Tosca at Deutsche Oper am Rhein Düsseldorf and was invited to perform it at the Opernhaus Hannover*, together with Amoroso Aida*. At the Aalto Theater Essen, Lagvilava sang Escamillo Carmen, Iago Otello and Scarpia Tosca. The baritone made his Opéra de Dijon debut with the title role of Nabucco. At the New National Theater Tokyo* Lagvilava was supposed to sing the roles of Ibn-Hakia in Tchaikovsky's Iolanta as well as L'empereur De Chine Le Rossignol. He was heard as Alfio Cavalleria rusticana with Den Norske Opera Oslo and as Iago Otello at the Al Bustan Festival in Beirut. Nikoloz Lagvilava studied singing in Tbilisi

CONTACT

Alex Grigorev

alex@tact4art.com

+31 647 900 647

Sofia Rukina

sofia@tact4art.com

+7 921 3655889

and was a member of the Georgian National Opera in Tbilisi.