

Nikoloz Lagvilava's upcoming engagements include returns as Rigoletto at Theater Basel, the Prague National Theater, Wrocław Opera*. With the same role he will make his debut at Teatro Nacional de Chile and Ópera de Toulon. Another debut includes Scarpia in Tosca at New National Theatre Tokyo, next to returns as Amonasro Aida to the Polish National Opera, Prague National Theatre, Germont La traviata at Georgian National Opera, Scarpia Tosca at Wrocław Opera*.

Recent engagements include house debuts as Germont in La Traviata at Dubai Opera, the title role in Rigoletto at Theatre Basel, Amonasro in Aida at the Polish National Opera in Warsaw, Scarpia at the Istanbul Opera Festival, Rigoletto in Moscow, Scarpia in Tosca Deutsche Oper am Rhein Düsseldorf, Jago Otello, Nabucco at Opéra de Dijon and Opéra de Lille, Escamillo Carmen at the Bolshoi Theatre Moscow and Slovak National Theatre, Count Tomsy in Pique Dame at Savonlinna Opera Festival, Alfio Cavalleria Rusticana at Norwegian National Opera. [*cancelled]

Lagvilava's further past appearances include his debuts at the Glyndebourne Festival and at the Komische Oper Berlin in the title role of Rigoletto. He garnered critical acclaim as Scarpia in Tosca at the Deutsche Oper am Rhein Düsseldorf and was invited to perform it at the Opernhaus Hannover*, together with Amoroso in *Aida. At the Aalto Theater Essen, Lagvilava sang Escamillo in Carmen, Jago in Otello, Scarpia in Tosca. The baritone made his Opéra de Dijon debut with the title role of Nabucco. At the New National Theater Tokyo* Lagvilava was supposed to sing the roles of Ibn-Hakia in Tchaikovsky's Iolanta as well as L'empereur De Chine in Le Rossignol. He was heard as Alfio in Cavalleria rusticana with Den Norske Opera Oslo, and as Iago in Otello at the Al Bustan Festival in Beirut. Nikoloz Lagvilava studied singing in Tbilisi and was a member of the Georgian National Opera in Tbilisi.

CONTACT

Alex Grigorev

alex@tact4art.com

+31 647 900 647

Sofia Rukina

sofia@tact4art.com

+79213655889