

In the current season, Stepan Drobit will perform the roles of Nabucco and Giorgio Germont La Traviata at the State Opera in Prague, Amonasro Aida with Opera Krakow, the title role in Nabucco and Ford Falstaff at the stage of Polish National Opera.

Recent engagements include Nabucco with Opéra de Toulon, Amonasro Aida and the title role in Rigoletto at Polish National Opera and Lviv Opera, Giorgio Germont La Traviata with Wiener Opernsommer and at the National Opera of Ukraine. Other notable appearances include Nabucco, Conte di Luna Il Trovatore, Friedrich von Telramund Lohengrin at Lviv Opera, and Papageno Die Zauberflöte in Gürzenich Köln and Konzerthaus Berlin.

Stepan has also performed as a soloist in Carl Orff's Carmina Burana in Konzerthaus Berlin and KKL Luzern, and as Scarpia Tosca and Gnat Nazar Stodolya at Khmelnytsky Regional Philharmonic.

Since 2018, Stepan Drobit has been the Artistic Director of the academic song and dance ensemble "Cossacks of Podillya". He has been a soloist at the Khmelnytsky Regional Philharmonic since 2014 and has previously collaborated with ensembles including the Galician Academic Chamber Choir, Lviv Municipal Choir "Gomin," and Dacapo. Stepan Drobit's repertoire includes leading baritone roles in operas by Giuseppe Verdi (Nabucco, Rigoletto, Il Trovatore, Don Carlos, Un Ballo in Maschera, La Traviata, Aida), Richard Wagner (Lohengrin, Der fliegende Holländer), Giacomo Puccini (Tosca), Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (Die Zauberflöte, Le Nozze di Figaro), and more. He also performs in cantatas such as Carl Orff's Carmina Burana and Gabriel Fauré's Requiem.

Additional highlights include his performances at the festival "Opera in Miniature" in Kamianets-Podilskyi and his participation in the 1st European Academy of Vocal Art in Bytom, Poland.

Stepan Drobit graduated with honours from the Teachers' Training College at Lviv National University after I. Franko and later earned a Master of Arts in Singing from the Department of Culture and Arts of Lviv National University.

CONTACT

Valeriy Serkin
(Vienna Office)

valeriy@tact4art.com
+43 699 12 18 22 64